

IMPORTANT WEDDINGS IN SOCIETY --- MANY ENGAGEMENTS ANNOUNCED

day. Miss Burroughs, who is the daughter of Mr. James S. Burroughs, is a member of an old English family and is socially prominent in London, where the wedding will take place.

Mr. Clapp is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Clapp, 21 East Eighty-second street, who have gone to England for the wedding. He was graduated from Yale in 1914. During the war he served as a Lieutenant in the Naval Air Forces. After a brief wedding trip he and his bride will live in this city.

An out of town wedding on Thursday will be that of Miss Mary Condon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Martin Condon, to Mr. Gladwin Stagner, which will be celebrated in Memphis, Tenn., where Mr. and Mrs. Condon now live. Miss Condon is well known here and until recently was a guest of Mrs. Oliver Harriman, with whom she spent the summer at Ridgefield House in White Plains. Miss Condon's parents formerly lived in Polk Manor. Her father formerly was an officer of the American Tobacco Company in this city and also was connected with the Carnegie Trust Company. Mr. Stagner is interested in the cotton industries of Tennessee and also is associated with the Marine Life Insurance Company.

On Saturday afternoon in the chapel of St. Sebastian, at Port Stocum, Miss Frances Mulver, daughter of Col. and Mrs. George Wilcox Mulver of Port Stocum, will become the bride of Mr. Paul McLeod, son of South Orange, N. J. The bride will be attended by Miss Cecile Brooke of San Francisco as maid of honor and her young sister, Miss Cora Mulver, as flower girl. Mr. McLeod is a son of South Orange and will be best man for his son. The ushers will be the bride's two brothers, Lieut. George Wilcox Mulver, Jr., and Lieut. Kenneth S. Mulver; Mr. Paul Giffin of Orange and Mr. Joseph Sticker of South Orange.

The marriage of Miss Emily Kent, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Kent of 135 West Fifty-eighth street, to Mr. Washington Platt will take place on December 6.

Miss Linn Merck and Mr. George Walbridge Perkins, Jr., whose engagement was announced recently, will be married on December 9. Miss Merck is the daughter of Mr. George Merck of Llewellyn Farms, West Orange, N. J. Mr. Perkins, who is a widower, is the son of the late George W. Perkins and Mrs. Perkins of Riverdale, N. Y.

Invitations will be issued soon for the marriage of Miss Martha Granger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hugi Granger of Chicago, to Mr. William Mitchell Blair, son of Mrs. Chauncey J. Blair of New York, formerly of Chicago. It will take place on December 21 in Chicago, and a breakfast will follow at the home of Miss Granger's grandfather, Mr. Marvin Huggitt, in Lake Forest.

Miss Granger has chosen for her attendants her two sisters, Mrs. Charles Edward Brown, Jr., and Mrs. Thomas H. Cowles, and Mr. Blair's two sisters-in-law, Mrs. Bartow Farr of New York and Mrs. Chauncey H. Blair and Miss De Soriano of St. Paul.

Mr. Chauncey H. Blair will be the best man. The ushers will include Mr. Brown and Mr. Cowles.

Miss Dorothy G. Pfeiffer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Pfeiffer of the Hotel Hamilton, West Seventy-third street, and Little Rock, Ark., will be married to Mr. Jacob Burrell, son of Mr. and Mrs. Bernhard Bitter of 459 West End avenue, on January 5. Miss Pfeiffer is a graduate of the National Cathedral Seminary at Washington, D. C.

Mr. and Mrs. Johannes A. L. Van der Bosch have gone to San Mateo, Cal., where they will spend the winter. Next summer they will go to Castle Hooge vu Ursche, in Baarn, Holland, where they will make their home. They were married on Monday in the Marble Collegiate Church in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends by the Rev. Dr. David James Burrell. Mrs. Van der Bosch was Miss Frances Gridley Kennedy, and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Rufus Kennedy of this city and Greenwich, Conn. At her marriage she was attended only by a flower girl, Joan Hamilton, the young daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cosmo Hamilton. Mr. Van der Bosch formerly was an officer in the Royal Dutch navy.

Only relatives and a few intimate friends attended the marriage on Wednesday morning of Miss Margaret Wilson, daughter of Mr. Lawrence A. Wilson of Montreal, to Mr. Walter A.

Galvin, son of Mr. and Mrs. John F. Galvin of 311 Riverside Drive, which was celebrated in the Lady Chapel of St. Patrick's Cathedral. The Rev. Bernard McQuade performed the ceremony, which was followed by a small breakfast at the St. Regis.

The bride, who was given away by her father, wore a gown of white satin trimmed with rose point lace and carried a bouquet of white morning glories and myrtle. Mrs. Charles Lacombe, sister of the bridegroom, was her only attendant, and Mr. Charles K. Cook was the best man.

The marriage of Miss Marion Haas, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Haas of 161 West Eighty-sixth street, to Mr. Edwin H. Faber, son of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Faber, took place on Wednesday evening at the Hotel St. Regis. The Rev. Dr. Stephen S. Wise officiated. The ceremony was followed by a reception and dinner.

Miss Grace Frances Blind, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Theophilus Blind of 5705 108th street, Richmond Hill, and Mr. Martin Arthur Von Lohn of Brooklyn were married Wednesday evening at Key Gardens Inn by the Rev. Joseph L. Hervey of the United Presbyterian Church of Woodhaven. The matron of honor was the bride's cousin, Mrs. Christian Petry. The bridesmaids were Misses Ruth Hervey and Minnie Von Lohn. Flower girls were Misses Florence Blind, Leona Petry, Muriel Burroughs and Elizabeth M. Alexander, added a picturesque note. The best man was Mr. Richard Von Lohn. The ushers were Messrs. Othmar Straumann and John Baur. A wedding supper followed.

In the Church of St. Nicholas of Tolentine, Andrews avenue, near Fordham road, Miss Alice C. Riley of 2322 Loring place, daughter of the late William J. Riley, was married on Wednesday to Mr. Joseph C. Riley of Manhattan. Mrs. Eugene Dalton McCabe was her sister's matron of honor. Mr. McCabe was best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. John Zieser, pastor of the church.

Miss Caroline Gladys Coddington, daughter of the late Col. Clifford Coddington, was married to Mr. Richard Morris Suter, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Suter, last Wednesday in All Angels' Church by the Rev. Dr. S. De Lancy Townsend. The bride was given away by her brother, Mr. John Coddington, and Mr. Suter's father was his best man. The ushers were Messrs. C. G. Appleton, Alexander Abernethy, John Getz and Capt. Alexander Popple of the British Air Service.

A small reception for the families and friends was held at the Hotel Marie Antoinette. Among those present were Mrs. Jefferson Coddington, Mr. and Mrs. C. Morgan Coddington, Mr. and Mrs. Alexander C. Morgan, Mr. and Mrs. James Tuley Coddington, Mr. and Mrs. William H. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. David Wesson, Mrs. A. Heaton Robertson, Mrs. Fancher Nicoll, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. La Boyette, Mrs. William N. Shaw, Mrs. S. W. Myers, Mrs. G. B. Mirick, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Gibbs and Mr. and Mrs. John R. Suter.

Both the bride and bridegroom served overseas during the war. Mr. Suter with the 10th Machine Gun Battalion of the Twenty-seventh Division and Miss Coddington with the New York Hospital unit.

The bride is a granddaughter of the late Homer who was a cousin of the late J. P. Morgan and a descendant of the family of William Coddington, first Governor of Rhode Island. Mr. Suter's mother was the daughter of George K. Fox of Leesburg, Va. The Suter family is one of the oldest in Switzerland.

Armistice Day Celebrated by Americans in Paris

Miss Elsa Maxwell Gives Brilliant Party at Which the 200 Guests Appear in Juvenile Costumes—Mrs. Parmely W. Herrick Among Those Present.

By MAY BIRKHEAD.

Special Correspondence to THE NEW YORK HERALD.

Paris, Nov. 26.

SOCIETY in Paris, especially within the American colony, keeps itself occupied, though the programme of the day is not marked by any important social events. There practically are no balls being given, and but few afternoon receptions, and one rarely hears of a dinner party except of the most informal sort.

The Americans seem to be doing their entertaining in small groups in the restaurants, particularly at the Ritz on Sunday night, or the International Club on Saturday night, and the Parisians seem to feel that conditions are not of the best for any kind of entertaining, so they seek what diversion they need at the exhibitions of art or at concerts or theatres.

It is interesting to note the difference in the weekly social calendar published in the French papers of to-day and that of six weeks before the war. The "Evening To-day" column published in The New York Herald of Paris, for instance, started a week ago to-day with a lecture by an American at the Sorbonne. The next item is the fifth annual roll call for membership in the

Engagements Announced Of Interest to Society

Several interesting engagements were announced last week, one of the most important being that of Miss Janet S. Croil, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Smyth Croil of Flushing, L. I., to Mr. Alexander Perry Morgan of Princeton, N. J. Miss Croil attended the Porter school at Farmington, Conn., and made her debut two years ago. She is a member of the Junior League and a sister of Miss Elsie Croil and of Mr. Joseph D. Croil, who was graduated this year from Princeton, where Mr. Morgan is a senior.

Mr. Morgan is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Julius Spencer Morgan of Constitution Hill, Princeton, and a grandson of the late Mrs. George Hale Morgan. He is related to Mr. J. Pierpont Morgan, Miss Anne Morgan, Mrs. Herbert L. Satterlee and Mrs. W. Pierson Hamilton of this city, and to the Viscountess Harcourt of London, who is at present visiting in New York.

Another interesting engagement announced during the week is that of Miss Hope Waldron Williams, daughter of the late Waldron Williams, to Mr. R. Barlow Road of this city. Miss Williams is a granddaughter of Mr. Horace L. Hotchkiss of this city and Rye, N. Y., and is a sister of Mrs. John T. Taylor, Jr., and Mrs. William Rosa Proctor, Jr. Her mother, who by her second marriage became Mrs. W. Eugene Kimball, died about two years ago. Miss Williams, who is a well known amateur actress, has appeared frequently with the Junior League and other organizations for charity.

Mr. Road is one of the four sons of the late William Augustus Road and Mrs. Read of this city and Purchase, N. Y. He served overseas during the war. He was graduated from Yale in 1919 and now is at Columbia Law School. His sister, Miss Caroline Hicks Road, was married in June, 1920, to Mr. Archibald G. McIlwaine 2d, son of Mrs. J. Palmer Knapp. Miss M. Elizabeth Read is another sister.

Formal announcement has been made of the engagement of Miss Barbara Eraman Johnson, daughter of Mr. Charles A. Johnson of Denver, to Mr. Stanley Johnson, eldest son of the Bishop of Colorado. Miss Johnson's late mother was Miss Lucy Braman of Boston. She is a niece of Mr. Dwight Braman of 56 West Fifty-seventh street, and is a graduate of the Spence School. She is spending the winter in Groton.

Her fiancé was graduated from Harvard in February and is professor of English at Kent School, Kent, Conn.

One of the interesting engagements announced last week was that of Miss Margaret Winthrop Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Doull Miller of 16 East Ninety-sixth street to Mr. William D. Crim, son of the late Dr. F. D. Crim of Utica.

Miss Miller, who was graduated from Vassar in 1919, is a granddaughter of the late Mrs. Augustus D. Shepard, who was a sister of Mr. William Rutherford Mead and of the late Mrs. William D. Howells. Mr. Crim was graduated from Cornell in 1917 and served in the aviation corps during the war.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Halstead have announced the engagement of their daughter, Miss Hildebrand Halstead, to Lieut. Charles Richard Bathurst, Corps of Engineers, U. S. A. Miss Halstead

Poslam drives itching eczema away

Think what it would mean to you to know the wonderful, soothing, cooling Poslam comfort. Why don't you get a box and begin treatment tonight? You can tell by its very smell that it is going to do good. The first touch usually gives relief and almost overnight the eruption begins to disappear. Poslam Soap helps this treatment greatly.
